

14
1871

CATALOGUE
OF
MEDALS, TOKENS,

AND
Numismatic Books and Miscellany,

EMBRACED IN THE
COLLECTION OF GEORGE P. UPTON,

TO BE

SOLD AT AUCTION

BY

WM. A. BUTTERS & CO., 5, 7, 9 & 11 Randolph St.

On Friday, April 14, 1871,

SALE COMMENCING AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M.

CHICAGO:

RAND. McNALLY & CO., PRINTERS, STATIONERS AND ENGRAVERS, 51 CLARK STREET.

1871.

CATALOGUE
OF
MEDALS, TOKENS,

AND
NUMISMATIC BOOKS AND MISCELLANY,

EMBRACED IN THE
COLLECTION OF GEORGE P. UPTON,

TO BE
SOLD AT AUCTION,

BY
WM. A. BUTTERS & CO., 5, 7, 9 & 11 RANDOLPH STREET.

On FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1871,

COMMENCING AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M.

CHICAGO :

RAND, McNALLY & Co., PRINTERS AND STATIONERS. 51 CLARK STREET.

1871.

CATALOGUE.

SILVER.

1. Paris Peace Medal of 1814. Loos, engraver.
2. Marriage Medal of Francis I. and Elizabeth.
3. Stralsund Schutzenfest Medal. Loos, engraver.
4. German War Medal of 1844.
5. Archbishop of Salisbury Medal, 1696.
6. Mexican Imperial Inauguration Medal, 1822.
7. Charles IV. (of Spain) Medal.
8. Herrnhut Moravian Medal. Of beautiful workmanship, and rare.

FINE AMERICAN BRONZES.

9. William Pitt. Struck in Philadelphia. A splendid copy, in perfect condition; very rare.
10. The Hosack Medal; a small but exceedingly beautiful bronze, by Furst.
11. N. Y. Crystal Palace Medal of 1855.
12. The Cowpens Congressional Medal.
13. Gates Medal, awarded by Congress. A beautiful bronze.
14. } Winfield Scott. Large bronze.
15. } Zachary Taylor. Large bronze.

(The above are probably the most elegant medals ever issued from the Mint, and were struck by order of Congress.)

16. The Three Bells, Kilby and Antarctic Medal. Struck by order of the Philadelphia City Council. Large bronze; rare.
17. The Wright-Webster Medal. Large bronze; a splendid copy.

18. Three Congressional Indian medals, large bronze, beautifully engraved, viz.:
 1. Thomas Jefferson.
 2. James Madison.
 3. John Quincy Adams.
19. Eight Congressional medals of the war of 1812, large and beautiful bronzes, viz.:
 1. Major General Alexander Macomb.
 2. Capt. W. Burrows.
 3. Commodore Bainbridge.
 4. Commodore Perry.
 5. Lieut. McCall.
 6. Brig.-General Ripley.
 7. Capt. Decatur.
20. Congressional Taylor Medal. A fine bronze.
21. Congressional Medal awarded to John Paul Jones. Bronze; very rare.
22. Philadelphia Sanitary Fair Medal; a proof copy. Fine bronze, and very rare.

WASHINGTON.

23. Liberty and Independence. Rare.
24. Washington and Independence Token of 1783. Very rare.
25. Ditto of 1783, different device. Rare.
26. Copy of Washington Half Dollar, in copper.
27. Lancaster Agricultural. Bronze; perfect.
28. Washington Cabinet. Elegant copy in bronze.
29. G. Washington, Pres. Unit. Sta. Superb bronze.
30. Washington Statue Medal. Bronze, rare.
31. Washington Temperance Society. Bronze, rare.
32. Washington Headquarter series, in copper (Lovett), ten in number; a perfect set. Complete sets very rare.
33. The Wright Medal. A large cast.
34. Washington Indian Medal. Found in an Indian burial ground in Wisconsin. Unique.
35. Three Washington Buttons. Extremely rare.

36. Baltimore Monument. Rare; tin.
37. Washington Half Cent. Extremely rare.
38. Washington Cent. Extremely rare.
39. Washington Token, double head.
40. Liberty and Security Medal. Extremely rare.
41. Washington before Boston. Large bronze; fine.
42. The Geo. Washington, Esq., Medal. Fine electrotype.
43. N. & G. Taylor Washington Medal. White metal.
44. Dickeson Washington Medal. White metal.
45. The 1832 Anniversary Medal. Very rare; white metal.
46. Hill Medal. White metal.
47. Idler Medal. White metal.
48. Lovett Residence Medal. White metal.
49. Washington and Everett. White metal; two copies.
50. Siege of Boston; Lovett series. Copper.
51. Geo. Washington, First in War, etc.
52. Washington and Lincoln. White metal; rare.
53. Industry produces Wealth. White metal; rare.
54. Washington and Franklin. Copper.
55. Ivin's Medal. Brass.
56. Brimlow Token. Brass.
57. Brimlow Token. Copper.
58. Merriam Token. Copper.
59. Washington Token of 1792. Copper; very rare.
60. Resurgimus Medal. Copper; rare.
61. Washington Postage Stamp enclosed in brass; a Tremont House Token during the war.
62. Washington Calendar. Brass; very rare.
63. Small Washington Masonic Medal. Copper.
64. Washington Presidential Group Medal. White metal.
65. Washington Medal in lead. A curiosity.
66. Baltimore Monument Medal; rare.
67. George and Martha Washington. Base silver; very rare.
68. Philadelphia Central Fair Medal. Small copper; very rare.
69. Seven miscellaneous, all different.

- 70. Two medals in white metal.
- 71. Three electrotypes.
- 72. Nineteen Washington Medalettes. Copper.

PRESIDENTIAL AND POLITICAL.

Lincoln.

- 73. The Northwestern Sanitary Fair Lincoln Medal, in bronze. A beautiful copy.
- 74. The Northwestern Sanitary Fair Lincoln Medal, in bronze. A beautiful copy.
- 75. The original Childs Medal. White metal; now very rare.
- 76. The second Childs Medal. White metal.
- 77. Nine different varieties of the 1860 medals, in white metal, copper and brass.
- 78. One medal of 1861, in white metal.
- 79. Eight different varieties of the 1864 medals, in white metal, copper and brass.
- 80. Nine Lincoln medalettes.

Grant.

- 81. Small Rubber in case. Rare.
- 82. Forty-eight Photographic Badges, etc., of different varieties.
- 83. Four Shells.
- 84. Two rare rubber medals, same stamp, but differing in size.
- 85. Four medals in copper, brass and white metal.
- 86. Large bronze, struck in Switzerland. Elegant and very rare.

Jackson.

- 87. Cast of 1829 medal. Rare.
- 88. Presidential Medal. Small brass; very rare.
- 89. Small medal, in white metal.
- 90. Six tokens.

Polk.

- 91. Polk and Dallas. White metal.

Douglas.

92. Eleven different varieties, in white metal, copper and brass.

McClellan.

93. The Lovett Military Medal. Very rare; white metal.
94. Seventeen different varieties, in white metal; copper and brass.

Seymour.

95. Small Seymour and Blair Medal. White metal.
96. Sixteen Photographic Shells and Badges.

Clay.

97. Clay and Frelinghuysen. Large copper.
98. United we Stand. Small brass; rare.

Fremont.

99. Four medals of different designs, in copper and white metal.

Fillmore.

100. The 1856 Presidential Medal. White metal.

Van Buren.

101. The Safe Medal. Copper; rare.
102. The Temple Medal. Brass; rare.

Buchanan.

103. Buck-Cannon Medal. Rare.
104. No Sectionalism. Small brass.

John Bell.

105. For President. White metal.

Lewis Cass.

106. Medal of 1848. Very rare.

Franklin Pierce.

107. Presidential. Small brass.

Harrison.

108. Five different varieties of Log Cabin Medals, all rare.

Taylor.

109. Small brass medal of 1848. Poor condition.

Breckenridge.

110. Presidential. White metal.

Verplanck.

111. Small brass. Rare.

AMERICAN.—MISCELLANEOUS.

112. Cathedral of St. Paul, Philadelphia. One of the finest of American medals, struck at the Philadelphia Mint.

113. Kitanning Medal, with accompanying description. Extremely rare.

114. Target Medal. A small and beautiful bronze.

115. Three Agricultural Medals. Bronzes.

116. The Presidential Residence set, sixteen in number, issued by Lovett, in perfect condition. Rare; copper.

117. The Henry Cook Coin Medal. Copper; in perfect condition.

118. A pattern Corps Badge, struck at the Philadelphia Mint. Copper.

119. The Erie Canal Medal. Fine copy; rare.

120. Small Chicago Sanitary Fair Medal, struck by the Scandinavians. White metal.

121. Wesley Chapel Medal. Beautiful copy; white metal.

122. Four Calendars, in brass, one of them of the year 1795.

123. Two Fenian Brotherhood Medals, in white metal and brass.

124. Small John Brown Medal, in white metal.

125. Milwaukee Sængerfest Medal. White metal.

126. Ellsworth and Brownell Photographic Medal. Rare.

127. Thirty-nine miscellaneous medals, all different, and including many very interesting specimens. All in good condition.

128. Seventy-two copper medalettes, all different.

129. Fourteen Canadian Copper Tokens, all different

FINE FOREIGN BRONZES.

130. The Berlin Humboldt Medal of 1828, one of the most elegant of the foreign bronzes.
131. Medal struck by the University of Jena, to commemorate a meeting of naturalists, only one copy being struck for each member. An exquisite bronze, and extremely rare. Date, 1836.
132. The Milan Cathedral Medal, with a very sharp impression of the cathedral, and portrait of Bartholomæus Romilius.
133. A set of fine bronzes, struck in honor of Nicholas I. of Russia. The only copies in this country.
134. An old French medal of the time of Louis XVI., cast from cannon metal. Very rare.
135. Four medals of the Army of Italy. Rare.
136. Rare and quaint old medical medal, date unknown.
137. Leopold I. of Belgium.
138. Lafayette Medal, struck in Paris.
139. Four commemoration bronzes:
1. Crystal Palace.
 2. Albert Dock, Liverpool.
 3. Aylesbury Railway.
 4. Newport Dock Extension.
140. French Republic Medal of 1848. Rare.
141. Duchess de Berry Medal. Rare.
142. Duke de Berry Medal. Very beautiful.
143. Napoleon Medal of the campaign of 1805. Rare.
144. Two German religious bronzes. Engraved by Loos.
- 144½. Utrecht Fair Medal.
145. Gregory XIII. Bronze, with St. Peter's on the reverse.
146. French political bronze, unclassified.
147. Seven beautiful bronzes, all different:
1. Louis, Liberator of Spain.
 2. Ditto, ditto.
 3. Louis the Great.
 4. J. Sylvain Bailly.
 5. Joh. Ol. Wallin.
 6. Louis XIV.
 7. Jean Ph. Rameau.

148. The Metallique Galerie. 49 bronzes in perfect condition, as follows:

- | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Vincent de Paul. | 25. Rene of Provence. |
| 2. Pierre Bayer. | 26. Voltaire. |
| 3. Gerard Andrau. | 27. Evariste Parny. |
| 4. G. Thomas Raynal. | 28. Ditto. |
| 5. Heloise. | 29. De La Harpe. |
| 6. P. du Terrail Bayard. | 30. Simon Favart. |
| 7. Massillon. | 31. L'Abbe Suger. |
| 8. Pierre Puget. | 32. G. Thomas Raynal. |
| 9. Ditto. | 33. Jean Varin. |
| 10. Bossuet. | 34. Crebillon. |
| 11. De Vauban. | 35. Baptiste Colbert. |
| 12. Barthelemy. | 36. De l'Hospital. |
| 13. Baptiste Gerbier. | 37. Corneille. |
| 14. Malesherbes. | 38. Poussin. |
| 15. En Quirinus Visconti. | 39. De Mezeray. |
| 16. Ditto. | 40. D'Aguesseau. |
| 17. Jacques Cujas. | 41. Perronet. |
| 18. Montaigne. | 42. Massena. |
| 19. Richelieu. | 43. Alexis Piron. |
| 20. Mad. De Sevigne. | 44. Quinault. |
| 21. Hector De Villars. | 45. Matthieu Mole. |
| 22. Rabelais. | 46. Corneille. |
| 23. Montesquieu. | 47. Bichat. |
| 24. Dominique Casini. | 48. Descartes. |
| | 49. De Suffren. |

149. Series Numismatica. Nine bronzes:

- | | |
|----------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Samuel Johnson. | 5. Christian Huygens. |
| 2. John Winckelmann. | 6. Benjamin Constant |
| 3. John Locke. | 7. Francis Lefort. |
| 4. Hermann Boerhave. | 8. Solomon Gessner. |
| 9. Abraham Verner. | |

MISCELLANEOUS FOREIGN MEDALS.

150. John Wesley Medal, in white metal.
151. Gregory XIV. Medal. White metal.
152. William IV. Medal. White metal.

153. Free Trade Medal of 1846, with portraits.
154. Ditto, ditto, with portrait of Cobden.
155. Leipsic Revolution Medal of 1813. Very rare.
156. Prussian War Medal of 1813. Very rare.
157. French Cinq Sols piece, of 1792. Rare.
158. French Deux Sols piece, of 1792. Rare.
159. Shakespeare Medal, in white metal.
160. German Bridge Medal, in copper.
161. Johann Melchior Morikofer. Steel; rare.
162. Commemoration Victoria Medal. White metal.
163. Crystal Palace Medal of 1851. White metal.
164. Thomas Clarkson Medal. Large; white metal.
165. Emancipation Medal of 1834. Large; white metal.
166. The Great Britain Launch Medal. White metal.
167. Paris Exposition Medal of 1855, with superb head of Napoleon. In composition.
168. The Breslau Sængerfest Medal of 1855. Very rare; white metal.
169. London Crystal Palace Medal, 1851. White metal.
170. German Religious Medal, engraved by Loos. White metal; very rare.
171. Raikes' S. S. Jubilee Medal, 1851. White metal; rare.
172. Pius IX. Medal. Copper.
173. "Touch me not, says Kildare," Medal of 1704. Very rare; brass.
174. Cornwallis' East Indian Medal of 1792. Bronze; rare.
175. Eclipse Medal. Bronze; rare.
176. David Latouche Medal. White metal; very rare.
177. William Duke of Cumberland Medal. Brass; very rare.
178. Lafayette Medal, in brass. Very old and rare.
179. Frederick the Great Medal of 1757. Brass; very rare.
180. Bonaparte Italian Medal. In white metal, colored.
181. Prince of Wales Masonic Token, in copper. Very rare.
182. Frederick the Great, Battle Medal. Bronze; rare.
183. German Religious Medal. White metal.
184. Constance Martyr Medal. Iron; rare.

- 185. Charlotte Corday Medal. Copper; very rare.
- 186. Waterloo Medal of 1814, with heads of Emperor of Russia, King of Prussia, Wellington and Blucher. Bronze.
- 187. Five Napoleon Medals, in bronze, copper and white metal, some of them extremely rare.
- 188. Seventeen Catholic medals, in white metal, copper and brass, some of them very rare.
- 189. Nine tokens of Louis XV. and Louis XVI. of France. Very rare.
- 190. The Victoria Bridge Medal, in white metal; a beautiful copy.
- 191. Fifty-three English tokens in copper, all in perfect condition, and an extremely beautiful set, probably one of the finest in this country.
- 192. Eugene and Marlborough Medal.
- 193. Fourteen medals in tin and white metal, some of them very curious.
- 194. Sixteen medals and tokens in copper.
- 195. Fourteen medals in brass. A very choice lot, and containing some genuine curiosities.

ELECTROTYPES AND CASTS.

- 196. Large head of Napoleon Bonaparte.
- 197. Pope Sixtus IV. A very quaint medal.
- 198. Cast of the famous John Carpenter Medal of 1447.
- 199. Shell of a rare old religious medal.
- 200. Cast of a rare Paris medal of 1789.
- 201. Electrotpe of the Wesley Centenary Medal of 1839.
- 202. The obverse and reverse of the famous Waterloo Medal. A magnificent copy, and very rare.
- 203. Nineteen electrotypes from ancient medals.
- 204. Seven miscellaneous electrotypes.
- 205. Six miscellaneous electrotypes.
- 206. Eight electrotypes from royal medals.
- 207. Six electrotypes from war medals.
- 208. Twelve electrotypes from Napoleon medals.

BOOKS, CATALOGUES AND MISCELLANY.

209. "A List of Washington Memorial Medals," by W. Elliot Woodward. Privately printed, 1865. Large English drawing paper. Only fifty copies of the List were printed, of which twelve are on English drawing paper. This copy is No. 6 of the List. This is, therefore, the rarest and most valuable of American numismatic publications. It is almost impossible to obtain a copy now, as they are so highly prized by collectors.
210. "The Medallic Memorials of Washington in the Mint of the United States," by James Ross Snowden. Philadelphia, 1861. Beautifully and profusely illustrated.
211. "A Description of Ancient and Modern Coins in the Cabinet Collection at the Mint of the United States," by James Ross Snowden. Philadelphia, 1861. With beautiful fac simile illustrations.
212. "The Knowledge of Medals, etc., with Addison's Essay on Medals." London: Printed for E. Curll, at the Dial and Bible; and T. Caldecott, at the Sun; both against St. Dunstan's Church, in Fleet Street, 1715. This work was written in French by Mons. Joubert, a Jesuit, and translated into English by Roger Gale, Esq., and is probably the only copy in the United States. The original edition was issued in 1694.
213. "New Varieties of Gold and Silver Coins, Counterfeit Coins and Bullion, with Mint Values." Second edition, by Eckfeldt & Dubois, Mint Assayers. New York, 1851.
214. "An Historical Account of Massachusetts Currency," by Joseph B. Felt. Illustrated; rare. Boston, 1839.
215. "Satterlee's Arrangement of Medals and Tokens struck in honor of the Presidents of the United States and Presidential Candidates, from Adams to Lincoln." Privately printed in 1862.
216. "Pinkerton's Essay on Medals, etc." In two volumes. London, 1789. A beautiful copy of this standard authority, now growing rare.
217. "Madden's Handbook of Roman Numismatics." London, 1861. Illustrated.
218. "Prime's Coins, Medals, and Seals." 1861. Illustrated.
219. A set of the "Woodward Catalogues," in perfect condition, for some of which collectors have paid as high as $10 a copy to fill sets. It is now impossible to obtain some of these numbers separately, and the owner prefers therefore to sell the set without breaking. It embraces twelve catalogues, as follows:

Brooks-Colburn Sale, New York, May, 1862.

Finotti Sale, New York, Nov., 1862.

Colburn Sale, New York, Oct., 1863.

McCoy Sale, New York, May, 1864.

Levick Sale, New York, Oct., 1864.

Bache Sale, New York, March, 1865.

Liliendahl, etc., Sale, New York, Dec., 1865.

Chambers Sale, New York, Feb., 1866.

Hoffman Sale, New York, April, 1866.

Jenckes-Paine Sale, New York, Dec., 1866.

Miscellaneous Sale, New York, April, 1867.

Six of these catalogues are priced in full.

- 220. Duplicate copy of the "Woodward Catalogue" of April, 1866.
- 221. Cogan Priced Catalogue of American Cents. Two copies. 1858.
- 222. Bogert Catalogue, 1859.
- 223. Dayton, Cogan and Groh Catalogues of 1860. All priced except the latter.
- 224. Curtis and Miscellaneous Catalogue of 1862. First priced.
- 225. Bennett, Riley, Muhlenberg, Prime, and a Miscellaneous Catalogue of 1864. First three priced.
- 226. Miscellaneous and Sanitary Fair (Chicago) Catalogue of 1865, the latter containing many coins and curiosities.
- 227. Cook, Chadbourne and Hall Catalogues, the latter priced and very rare. 1867.
- 228. The Mackenzie Catalogue of 1869. Very beautifully illustrated.
- 229. A full set of Chicago Catalogues, embracing:
 - The Butters Sale of 1864, the first coin sale in Chicago.
 - Gilbert & Sampson Sale of 1865, priced.
 - Deakin Catalogue of 1866, priced.
 - Scott Sale of Jan., 1867. Five copies, one of them priced.
 - Scott Sale of March, 1867. Six copies, one of them priced, with large number of addenda.
- 230. Twenty-seven numbers of the "American Journal of Numismatics," from May, 1866, to Feb., 1870.
- 231. Four duplicates of above.

- 232. Nos. 1 and 2 of the "Western Antiquarian," and Nos. 1 and 3 of the "Chicago Coin and Stamp Journal." Curiosities.
- 233. The original designs of the National Grant Medal ordered by Congress, both obverse and reverse. A genuine curiosity.
- 234. Photograph of obverse and reverse of a rare medal dug up in Wisconsin.
- 235. Twenty-one varieties of Scrip in use during the war.
- 236. Thirty specimens of Confederate Currency.
- 237. Specimens of Confederate Bonds, and two of McClellan's War Maps.
- 238. "Federal Intelligencer and Baltimore Daily Gazette" of Aug. 26, 1795.
- 239. A miscellaneous lot of Catalogues, Plates, Circulars, Magazines, etc., relating to coins, embracing 21 pieces.
- 240. A Coin Scrap Book.

